CARLOS ROMERO

Carlos is a PTR High-Performance tennis coach and Junior Tennis Developer Certified at the highest level of the organization. Carlos is also certified in Etcheberry Strength, Conditioning & Movement in Tennis by the world's foremost expert in the field, Pat Etcheberry. His coaching career began 15 years ago in Texas, where he flourished as a tennis coach and a mentor for kids. In 2012 Carlos became the head coach at the Poland Swim and Tennis Club in Youngstown, Ohio. Then his career took him to Florida, where he worked under the direction of world-renowned Tennis coach Gabe Jaramillo at Club Med Tennis Academy. The academy helped enhance his knowledge and skills in teaching high-performance tennis and molded him into the coach he is today. From 2016-2018 Carlos was part of the Boar's Head Sports Club family as Assistant Director of Jr. Tennis and adult programming. He worked as one of the lead high-performance coaches in elite development programs and organized in-house doubles and singles adult men's leagues.

Carlos had the privilege to work as a travel coach as part of the U.S. Special Olympics Tennis delegation at the Special Olympics World Tennis Invitational in Santo Domingo DR in 2018.

Carlos, originally from the Dominican Republic, resides in the city of Charlottesville with his wife and daughter
