

THE SPORTS CLUB

at

BOAR'S HEAD RESORT

GEORGE ELIAS

George's passion for the game and his 20 years of experience as a teaching pro in Northern Virginia have served him well. He was the head pro at Wintergreen Resort and worked at Westwood Country Club as well as the Four Seasons Tennis Club.

While at the Four Seasons, George served with Bob Pass guiding a successful national caliber junior program that produced several notable NCAA Division I players. At Westwood Country Club, he guided all aspects of club tennis, including a successful USTA ladies 3.5 team that competed at districts 9 out of 10 years. George is a thorough and thoughtful teacher who helps you improve your game. George played college tennis at Birmingham Southern College.

