QUENTIN JENKINS

Quentin started playing tennis around 5 years old and started taking regular lessons in 6th grade as part of the Charlottesville Catholic School Tennis Team. He played for 3 years at Albemarle High School and then played for 2 years on the Club Team at Virginia Tech going to Tennis on Campus Nationals both years.

Quentin first started coaching in high school assisting with the Charlottesville Catholic School team. He became certified by the USPTA about 1 week after his 18th birthday, and has been working as a coach ever since then.
